

State Bar of Texas Government Law Section Author Agreement

As the author of one or more articles submitted to the State Bar of Texas Government Law Section, a publication of the State Bar of Texas Government Law Section, I agree to and affirm the following:

1. The State Bar of Texas Government Law Section and the State Bar of Texas, in its sole discretion, retains the right to accept or reject any article I submit for publication for any reason.
2. I have the authority and right to enter into this Agreement and to convey the rights granted herein.
3. The article does not infringe the copyright or property rights of another.
4. As the author, I retain the individual copyright to any article I submit.
5. If an article is accepted for publication, the State Bar of Texas and State Bar of Texas Government Law Section owns the copyright to the collected work in which the article appears.
6. If an article is accepted for publication, I grant the State Bar of Texas and the State Bar of Texas Government Law Section a non-exclusive license to reproduce, sell, and otherwise distribute all or portions of the article under my name as author, individually or as part of collective and derivative works, through any media, including electronic, now known or that might be created.
7. No compensation is offered to me by the State Bar of Texas Government Law Section or the State Bar of Texas for any article, its publication, or distribution.

Elizabeth Maccubbin
Date 2/10/12