Naming Protocols

When naming documents, there are some protocols we must follow to help keep the documents organized.

How to name the documents:

We will save the document as what it is. then the date. the initials of person creating the document. and the type of extension the document is

For example: Government financials. April 2016. KO. PDF